CLIFTON-PONTIUS

One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Wauseon occurred at the home of G. L. Clifton, on Harrison street, on Wednesday evening. Miss Carrie Clifton and Mr. Byron Pontious were the contracting parties.

The bride was lovely and simply gowned in a creation of filmy lace, the wedding veil being fastened with flowers.

The bride carried a large bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was held at 8 o'clock and the strains of music were heard and Miss Helen Paxson very sweetly sang, "O Promise Me." The wedding march was played by Miss Clara Mohr, sounded softly throughout the rooms and Rev. G. W. Wolcott entered the parlor followed by two little girls, Jane and Jean Leavenworth, bending a basket of flowers on which reposed the circlet of gold used in the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride and groom entered untroubled under a beautiful canopy of green and white, the vows were taken and they were pronounced husband and wife.

The decorations were unusually beautiful, the rooms being transformed by the twining green and tiny white blossoms. The color scheme of green and white was well carried out.

Miss Ethel Ayres was the lucky one to catch the bouquet of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Pontious will make their home in Alfred, N. Y., where Mr. Pontious has an excellent position as teacher of agriculture in the college at that place. Their Wauseon friends extend congratulations.

Out of town guests who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Russell and Warren Connolly of Liberty Center, Harry Gintzel of Toledo, John Longshore of Cleveland, Emily Reynolds of Toledo, and Miss Jean Leavenworth of Defiance, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Israel Pontious, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pontious and daughter Ruth of Liberty Center, Enos E. There were enough members present to do business; bills were ordered paid and the minutes were read. The club was organized for the purpose of taking of an offer from the manager of the Marion Tribune in behalf of the Editor, Thomas Brooks Fletcher, to give a talk to the business men of Wauseon at a noonday luncheon on August 24th. Mr. Fletcher is to give a dramatic lecture on the Chautauqua program on Tuesday night.

A proposal to change the date of meetings from the second Monday night of each month to the first Monday night of each month was made but definite action was deferred until some time when there is a larger attendance.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held on Monday evening September 11th, and it is important to the business and civic interests of the community that there be a full attendance.

THE PRIMARIES. Wauseon, Ohio, Aug. 15, 1916. I think I owe it to the Republicans of this county to thank them for the evidence of their friendship and confidence as shown by the vote given me.

I said at the opening of the campaign that I would not canvass the county and solicit votes. During the campaign I did not even SUGGEST PERSONALLY the support of twenty men in the county. There are six precincts in which I did not interview one voter. In two I interviewed one man each. My expenses for postage was less than fifty cents. In this campaign, AT HOME, in Wauseon and Clinton townships, where the voters were familiar with the facts, out of a vote of 545 I received a majority of 31. Being a candidate for a third term against a man serving his FIRST term, the confidence evidenced I regard as the greatest compliment I ever received.

Some men seeing the storm that would certainly break against candidates for more important positions, saw that this nomination of Mr. Stahl was necessary to avert the storm, and for that reason gave their influence to Mr. Stahl. Of course the interests of the whole State is of more importance than the interests of one little county. Let us now turn in and save the State from financial and moral bankruptcy. Respectfully, J. Q. FILES.
